CORRESPONDENCE

DUBLIN

There has been quite a lot of hustling and moving the last two week in our neighborhood.

Marshall Deardorff sold a horse at Lamar last Saturday.

The dance at Mr. Ward's last Friday night was well attended.

Dick Hatfield has put in a telephone at his house.

Button Garner and Tom Patterson were seen on our streets Saturday.

Geo. Ward moved on the Butler farm last Saturday.

Chas. Johnson moved on the Hahn farm last Friday.

Harve and Billie Law hauled hay to Carthage last week.

Jim Owens of Boston and Walter Owens of Pittsburg, Kans., were here Saturday.

Oliver Butler visited his farm Saturday.

Bill Lane is erecting a new fence around his farm.

Marshall Deardorff bought a fine milk cow last week.

Mr. Strawn sold his house in north Dublin to a farmer, and the farmer tore the house down. One more of Dublin, old land marks gone.

Wash, Frank and Lucy, Sharp and Mamie Clark went to McConnell's dance Saturday evening.

Will Lane has been hauling hedge posts from his father's.

Mamie Clark visited at Sharps Sunday.

Alva Dyson left for Arkansas one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Johnson received a large box of fruit from Rialto, Calif., from their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Campbell. The box contained a variety of fruit and a fine assortment of each kind. Some of the oranges measured 12 1/2 in in circumference, some of the lemons measured 10 1/8 in. The fruit was fresh picked and well packed and came through in fine shape. There are no such oranges in the markets here. The grape fruit is the finest we ever saw.

Mr. Strawn was plastering and papering their house last week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lane visited home folks Sunday.

G. H. Johnson is helping his son, Chas. build a flue this week.

Bernice Hubbard spent Saturday night with Pearle Johnson.

Stella, Henry and Zelda Covert took dinner, Sunday, with W. O. Paisley and family.

Geniza Follmer returned home last week after an extended visit with her aunt in Oklahoma.

DEWEY

Why do Mr. Campbell's grand children call him "Uncle?" Because his daughter married Mrs. Campbell's brother Mrs. Campbell is a mother-in-law to her brother. Mr. Campbell's son in-law is his nephew.

The new 1908 telephone directory is out and contains some surprising ads. from Kansas City. On the same page with wine and liquor ads appears the statement, "Drunkness is a disease and denying it is ignorance." A liquor cure company offers a complete cure or money refunded. What would you think of a merchant who sold shoes and advertised corn cures, bunion cures, and foot powders, darning cotton and stockings that would not wear out? You say at once there is something wrong with the shoes.

Chas. Kincaid leaves this week for Idaho, where he will finish his college course. He is a soph. in the state university.

The suit-for-damage case between Goffe and Busters is off for a while.

Mr. Greenwood has the material on hands for a new home.

Mrs. Joe Carnes was sent to Nevada on Monday.

Miss Jeanie Johnston called on Miss Rennie Cotton Monday.

New Goods In

New shipments of Wagons, Buggies and Implements have arrived in the past few days. The wagons are the STUDEBAKER—'nuf said. The buggies are the STAYER, best made. We've a few of these buggies equipped with a runaway-escape device that might save your life in case of runaway or accident. Come see it. The implements are the ROCK ISLAND—another case of 'nuf said.
